

So you want to apply to medical school...

Requirements

- Vary by school, check the web sites for individual schools
- AMCAS- open date "June 2, opens ahead of submission date-complete this early (ideally, you would submit ASAP)
- In general...
  - Chemistry and Organic chemistry (16L Physics (8L Biology (8L English (6) with labs for science courses
  - Strongly recommended or required: Psychology, Sociology, Biochemistry+/- statistics
MCAT
Letters of recommendation-usually 3
Medical experience-shadowing, volunteering, or work

Medical School:

Time: 4 years plus residency

Route: MD or DO

Structure: Pre-clinical then clinical years

- Undergraduate activities-get involved in activities you enjoy and would be comfortable talking about in an interview, try and seek leadership positions or quantifiable achievements
Examples: debate, shadowing, RA, camp counselor, TA, research, orchestra, ultimate frisbee, Pre-Med honors society, Volunteering at a local hospital, sports, Model UN, ER scribe, medical missions, choir, community service
- Schedule classes with letters of recommendation in mind-consecutive classes with the same professor, lab sections the professor is in charge of, research or extra-curricular activities which the professor is involved in etc.
- Make sure your letters of recommendation are in early

<https://students-residents.aamc.org/> - National organization which most applications are sent through

<https://www.uthsc.edu/medicine/admissions/index.php>- UT College of Medicine Prospective Student Site

<http://www.uthsc.edu/comc> -- UT College of Medicine Chattanooga website